

World Congress on

Nutrition and Obesity Prevention Source

November 16-18, 2017, Barcelona, Spain with emphasis on cardiovascular function and metabolism, acting mainly on the mechanisms underlying the development of cardiometabolic diseases. It is currently studying the repercussions of protein malnutrition in the gestation and lactation period and of western diets during adulthood on cardiometabolic parameters.